PRESS RELEASE : PRESS RELEASE : PRESS RELEASE

Ripponden's award winning community market returns to the village on Sunday 14th December and will be open from 9.30am on the Brig Royd surgery car park on Halifax Road.

Chairman of Ripponden Parish Council, Cllr Steve McCarley said "The market is proving extremely popular with stallholders and the site will be at capacity on the 14th.

The market promises a real festive feel and shoppers will be able to buy some of the best, locally produced food and crafts".

Stalls will be selling a wide variety of handcrafted gifts, cards, festive decorations and wreaths. Jewellery, artwork, tweed bags, flowers, wooden novelties and driftwood sculptures will give shoppers the chance to sort those last minute presents.

Shoppers at the December 2013 market

Visitors will have the opportunity to buy locally produced artisan foods boasting 'low carbon miles' including pork pies and pulled pork rolls, eggs, cakes, farmhouse cheeses and speciality breads and biscuits.

Santa's Grotto

A sax ensemble, playing Christmas carols, will get shoppers into the festive spirit and for the younger shoppers Santa will be in his grotto from 10.00am until 2.00pm with gifts for the children.

Refreshments and street food will be available.

Ripponden Community Market, winner of the NABMA 'Best Local Council Market 2014' is organised by Ripponden Parish Council.
