PRESS RELEASE : PRESS RELEASE : PRESS RELEASE

Ripponden Community Market Sunday 14th June 2015

Ripponden Community Market, winner of NABMA's Best local Council Market 2014, will be back in the village on Sunday 14th June. The market will be at its usual site on the car park at Brig Royd Surgery, Halifax Road and will be open to shoppers from 9.30am. Ripponden is based on the A58 between Sowerby Bridge and Rochdale, near Junction 22 on the M62.

The market is organised and run by Ripponden Parish Council and Chairman, Cllr Craig Johnson said "The Parish Council is keen to see continued support for the community market and hopes that people will come along on 14th June and see what the market has to offer".

Stalls will be selling handcrafted jewellery, artwork and glassware and locally produced artisan foods such as farmhouse cheeses, pork pies, cakes and speciality biscuits.

Shoppers will be able to try their hand at Garden Quoits, Giant 4 In A Row and the card game Higher/Lower.
